PROFILE

A computer enthusiast who is always seeking for new innovations and creations. Eagerly interested in computer hardware and software. Trying to grab any opportunities I can grab to shape my career in a right path.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Currently I am seeking for opportunities and trying my best to show my skills to the world. Though I may not have a company level experience but I have made different projects which I think adds up. Some of my projects are calculator, aim trainer, budget management system and others too.
